Fifth online auction Verden Foal Spring

Verden. The colt Symphatico was at the top of buyers' favourites. With a knockdown price of 26,000 Euros, he led the price statistics of the fifth online auction of the Verden Foal Spring. On average, the 35 foals of the online auction cost 7,685.71 Euros.

47 bids were placed on the Segantini/Don Martillo son Symphatico (breeder: Frank Grobe, Wendeburg, exhibitor: ZG Grobe, Wendeburg) before the virtual knockdown was made at 26,000 Euros. A new customer from Hamburg is the happy new owner of this son of a Bundeschampion. The performance is also secured via the dam's side, as dam's sire Don Martillo was not only Bundeschampion, but was celebrated as World Champion of five-year-old dressage horses in 2017. Six minutes later, Bonds Black by Bonds/Fürst Romancier (breeder and exhibitor: Hubertus Poll, Gilten) was sold for 22,000 Euros. The expressive black stallion is already the second foal of the 2018 born double champion mare Hann.Pr.A. Fashion Week, who found a new via a Verden foal auction.

The lot of jumping-bred foals closed with the colt Duktus, who advanced to the highest paid foal in this section. At 11,500 Euros, the Duplexx/Nobre xx offspring (breeder and exhibitor: ZG Hahne, Intschede and Werder) with a clear disposition for eventing outdid the previous foals and was sold to an eventing stable from Great Britain.

Hannoveraner Rhythmus

In Verden, it goes on in quick succession, already on Sunday, June 25, the bidding for another online foal auction starts at 2 pm CET. It is a premiere: At the "Breeder's Offer", the breeders directly place 50 interesting dressage and jumping foals in the auction showcase. The Verden Foal Spring is not over yet either – a sixth online auction has been added to the programme. The collection is highly interesting and carefully selected and will be auctioned online on Thursday, July 6.
